About Stony Brook Wrestling Club

The Stony Brook University Wrestling team operates as a sports club through Campus Recreation. The team competes collegiately in the National Collegiate Wrestling Association (NCWA) where they are members of the Northeast Conference. Stony Brook wrestlers are led by Coach Shaun Lally. In a time where many college wrestling programs are dissolving, Stony Brook is proud of its emergence. In its inaugural season the team attained many goals and accomplishments. Continued success hinges on University and community support as well as the Long Island wrestling community. We hope that you will consider our golf outing as your participation directly benefits the program. The wrestling team appreciates you and thanks you for your support.
