

50th Annual Mid-Hudson Wrestling Tournament

Here is the list of all previous individual and team champions.

The Mid-Hudson was started in 1965 as the Arlington Wrestling Invitational by Mr. Bill Wright, Arlington's first wrestling coach. Four teams participated (Arlington, Onteora, Brewster, and Saugerties) and Onteora was team champion. It expanded to six teams in 1966 ,eight schools in 1967, and 13 teams in 1970.

In 1971 it expanded to 16 teams and was moved to Dutchess Community College. It remained at DCC until 1983 and was moved to Kingston High School (Kate Walton Field House). The tournament was expanded to 25 teams. Mr. Dean Short of Kingston was tournament director. In '02 it moved back to Arlington and has been there ever since under the direction of Mr. Fred Perry.

It is the longest running wrestling tournament in NYS. It has had NCAA and Olympic Champions, including Jeff Blatnick (Olympic Champion) and Kerry McCoy (NCAA Champion). It has also attracted teams from all over NYS.
